

Now Hiring:

Aircraft Radio Engineer

SSM Aerospace LLC values Ethics, welfare and equality. Our corporate structure is built on high standards and it is our duty to make sure that employees are happy with their career status. That is why we are the best employer to work for. We are currently seeking Telecommunication maintenance engineers to support our customers' throughout the United States

This position is open in all U.S states.

Responsibilities:

You will be assign to multiple aircrafts on daily basis.

- Maintaining, repairing, modifying, or testing electronic telecommunications equipment, VHF, UHF, or microwave telecommunications equipment.
- Knowledge and understanding of various public and Aviation safety radio systems.
- Antenna specification to make sure signals are toned I.A.W FCC regulations.
- Responsible for the testing, inspection, installation, maintenance, repair and overhaul of all radio communications equipment to include hand-held, portable and installed systems in facilities, stations and on board Airplane.
- Install Aircraft Communication systems.
- Time to time travel to other sites to cover customer services.
- Must be willing to travel with the Aircraft, to assist pilots on Aircraft Communication Systems.
- Carry out activities related to modification and repair of aircraft avionics/electrical systems and components.

- Provide technical advice, service and support, as necessary, for support of line, check and shop operations.
- Perform shop level repairs to avionics/electrical components using approved technical data.
- Perform work in accordance with approved policies, procedures, and specifications including the proper execution of paperwork and forms.
- Maintain work area & tools in a safe, clean and functional condition at all times
- Perform other duties as assigned.
- Willing to accept promotion for site manager

Qualifications:

- Associate degree in electronics, avionics and Telecommunication engineering technology/ Technical postsecondary education is also accepted. 6 years of experience may substitute for the education.
- Must have complete tool sets to accomplish all tasks(required)
- Six (6) years of hands on experience/knowledge on Aircraft Communications Systems required.

- No license is required, But must know and understand Federal Communications regulations to perform services on Aircraft Communications systems (Required).
- Able to work and make decisions without supervision.
- Able to pass 10 year background check.
- Passport up to date for international Travel.
- 25-50% travel required.
- Able to follow rules and directions.
- Positive attitude and well groomed.
- Willing to travel on short notice.
- Good character.
- Willing to accept promotion for site manager position.

Benefits:

Above/ Maximum Salary(Negotiable), medical, vacations days, company car, office, business laptop, company phone and separate room for your tools.

About:

SSM Aerospace LLC, is based out of Willow Run Airport Michigan. We provide aircraft/spacecraft technical and engineering services to Airlines/Aviation companies in North America. The company specializes in:

- Aircraft In-flight Entertainment Video/Audio/software Systems
- Aircraft Connectivity (Airborne-Wi-Fi systems)
- Aircraft Communication Systems

For consideration send us your resume at Careers@ssmaerospace.com

The SSM Aerospace LLC is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment and will not be discriminated against on the basis of race, gender, gender identity or expression, color, religion, national origin, sexual orientation and/or disability status.

SSM Aerospace LLC is an Equal Opportunity Employer of women, minorities, qualified disabled, and covered veterans. Qualified applicants will receive a equal consideration for employment and will not be discriminated.